Description

For sale via online auction.

Pattinsons are pleased to offer to market this tenanted investment opportunity. Located within the small village of Trimdon Station, the properties currently are both rented at £475 PCM upper flat, £499 PCM lower, giving a total monthly income of £974 to any prospective new owner.

The ground floor flat is the larger of the pair and is accessed via rear lane. The gates lead to the communal yard and store area for the bins. You enter the flat into the kitchen, then the family bathroom with overhead shower and bathtub to the rear of the property. Leading off to the front is the large and bright living room with a spacious storage cupboard, under the stairs of the upper flat. Beyond this, to the front of the flat are the two bedrooms, one double and one single, both with double glazed windows and gas central heating radiators.

The upper floor flat is accessed via the front street, You enter the flat into a entrance hallway with staircase up to the first floor flat, enter into the kitchen diner, then the family shower room with shower cubicle to the rear of the property. Leading off to the front is the large and bright living room, Beyond this, to the side of the flat are the two bedrooms, one double and one single, both with double glazed windows and gas central heating radiators.

Trimdon Station is located with a short rural drive to the A19 giving a 40 minute drive to Newcastle, 30 minutes to Darlington train station and 25 minutes to Middlesbrough. If you are looking to settle in a quiet village and love a location close to the east coast, Trimdon Station is a great option.

If you are looking for investments that offer village life but not too far from larger cities, east coast air and easy access to transport links.
