Description

Set within the peaceful village of Longhorsley, this attractive detached three-bedroom home on Wilding Place offers spacious accommodation, a generous garden, and easy access to both countryside and commuter links.

Longhorsley is a charming Northumberland village surrounded by open countryside, offering a convenience store, traditional country pub, OFSTED-rated first school, and regular bus services to nearby towns and villages.

Just a short drive away, the popular market town of Morpeth provides an excellent range of amenities including supermarkets, boutiques, designer retailers, cafés, salons, leisure facilities, and highly regarded schools for all ages. Morpeth's mainline railway station also offers regular direct services to both Edinburgh and London, making the area ideal for commuters.

The property itself is well presented throughout and briefly comprises a spacious kitchen-diner, comfortable lounge, and ground floor WC. To the first floor are two double bedrooms and a further single bedroom, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite shower room, alongside a modern family bathroom. The loft space has also been boarded and fitted with lighting and power, providing excellent additional storage.

Externally, the home benefits from a driveway and garage, together with a generous rear garden thoughtfully designed with lawn and patio areas, complemented by mature shrubs and planting to create a private and relaxing setting ideal for outdoor entertaining and al fresco dining.

Properties in this sought-after location are expected to attract strong interest, therefore early viewing is highly recommended.
