Description

A much improved and well updated mid terrace house. Well placed within Park Road, the home has a pleasant front outlook over the park and provides a extremely convenient location close to the train station, amenities and shops.

Presented in good order, the home offers ready-to-move into accommodation, briefly comprising: entrance lobby, living and dining room with access into the stylish fitted kitchen and the internal hall, which offers access to the first floor accommodation. Off the kitchen there is a good sized utility room providing access into the modern three piece suite bathroom and the enclosed private rear yard. On the upper floor you find three bedrooms, two doubles and a single room with skylight.

Outside there is a private low maintenance front garden and a nicely enclosed private rear yard. In addition, there is a good sized on-site garage with power and lighting,

This is a lovely home and we feel it would make a wonderful purchase for a first-time-buyer or someone looking to down-size buy.

Please call the local sales team to set up an appointment to view or to obtain further information.
