Description

An exciting development opportunity to obtain A large detached plot which is prime for development. Ideally located over the road from alder hey hospital.

We are pleased to bring to auction a spacious, detached, freehold property located on East Prescot Road. This home offers 1744 sq. Ft of living space and is a stones throw away from Alder Hey Hospital. This home is ripe for development and there is plenty of scope to use the space to convert into separate private rooms or to keep as one large house.

The property was originally two premises which now forms one. On inspection, it has two reception rooms, dining room and kitchen. There are four double bedrooms and two bathrooms to the second floor. The property has plenty of space and plenty of scope. Well located for all local amenities and transport links into the City Centre.

Gas central heating throughout. Double glazing.
