Description

A spacious property located in the popular residential area of Canley, offering excellent potential for investors, landlords or buyers looking for a refurbishment project. Conveniently positioned close to local amenities, transport links, the University of Warwick and easy access to Coventry city centre.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway, generous lounge, fitted kitchen with access to the rear, and well-proportioned bedrooms. Externally, the property benefits from a rear garden and useful outbuilding/storage space.

The property would benefit from a programme of refurbishment throughout, presenting an excellent opportunity to add value and create a strong rental investment or family home.

Situated in a well-established location with strong rental demand, this property is ideally suited to investors seeking a project with long-term potential.
